"(1) In the case of a fraudulent monthly report or failure to file a monthly report, the tax may be assessed at any time.

"(2) If the tax as imposed by this Act is determined to be due from any person other than a licensee under this Act, such tax may be assessed at any time.

"(3) In the case of an incorrect report, the tax shall be assessed or reassessed within five (5) years after the filing of such report.

"(4) If a report required by this Act is not filed, or if the report when filed is incorrect or insufficient, or if the tax as imposed by this Act has been determined to be due from a licensee or any other person, the amount of tax due shall be determined by the Mayor from such information as may be obtainable. Notice of such determination shall be given to the licensee or to any person required to file a report and/or pay the tax. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom the tax is

After such hearing or redetermination the Mayor shall give notice of his final determination to the person against whom the tax is assessed.

"(D) Any licensee or other person required to file a report and/or pay the tax who fails to file such report, who files a false or incorrect report, or who fails to pay the tax to the District of Columbia within the time required by this Act, shall be subject to a penalty of five (5) per centum of the tax due if the failure is for not more than one (1) month, with an additional five (5) per centum for each additional month or fraction thereof, during which such failure continues not to exceed twenty-five (25) per centum in the aggregate; plus interest at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) per centum of such tax for each month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues; but the Mayor may, if he is satisfied that the delay was excusable, waive all or any part of the penalty, or interest. Unpaid penalties and interest may be collected in the same manner as the tax imposed by this Act. The penalty and interest provided for in this section shall be applicable to any tax determined as a deficiency.

"(c) The tax imposed by this Act and interest and penalties thereon shall become, from the time due and payable, a personal debt of the person liable to pay the same to the District of Columbia. Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the Mayor for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful.

"Sec. 21. Where any tax has been erroneously or illegally collected by the District, the tax shall be refunded if application under oath is filed with the Mayor for such refund within three (3) years from the payment thereof. Such application must be made by the person upon whom such tax was imposed and who has actually paid the tax. Application for a refund as herein provided shall be deemed an application for a revision of tax, penalty, and/or interest complained of and the Mayor may receive evidence with respect thereto. After making his determination of whether any refund shall be made, the Mayor shall give notice thereof to the applicant.

Any person aggrieved by a final determination of tax or by a denial of a claim for refund, other than a refund of tax finally determined in section 19 of this Act, may within six (6) months from the date of assessment of the deficiency, or from the date of the denial of a claim for refund, appeal to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 3 and 4 of title IX of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, approved May 16, 1938 (52 Stat. 371; D.C. Code, secs. 47-2403 & 47-2404) as amended.

D.C.Code,

The Mayor may seize any such motor-vehicle fuels wherever they are found.

D.C.Code,
sec. 47-1916.

"(b) In any case where the Mayor has knowledge or reason to suspect that any vehicle is carrying motor-vehicle fuel in violation of any provisions of this Act, the Mayor is authorized to stop such vehicle and to inspect the same for contraband motor-vehicle fuel. If such vehicle is carrying motor-vehicle fuel in violation of any provision of this Act, the motor-vehicle fuel and the vehicle shall be confiscated.

"(c) The Mayor shall not in any way be held responsible in any court for the seizure or the confiscation of any motor-vehicle fuel or vehicles which are seized or confiscated under the provisions of this Act. Any motor-vehicle fuel or vehicles so seized shall be sold in the same manner as personal property seized for the payment of District of Columbia taxes, and the proceeds of such sales shall be deposited to the credit of the District of Columbia. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if the Mayor believes that any failure to comply with the provisions of this Act is excusable, the Mayor may, in his discretion, return to the owner or owners thereof any motor-vehicle fuel or vehicles seized under the provisions of this section."

Sec. 12. Section 128 of the District of Columbia Sales Tax Act, approved May 27, 1949 (63 Stat. 112; D.C. Code, sec. 47-2605) is amended by adding a new subsection (u) to read as follows:

Sec. 14. (a) If any provision of section 11 or 12, or both, including any amendment made by section 11 or 12, or both, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the provisions of section 11 or 12, or both, including the remaining amendments thereof, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

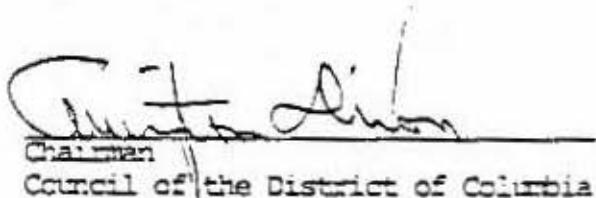

D.C.Code,
sec. 47-1916

(b) The repeal or amendment by section 11 or 12, or both, or any provision of law shall not affect any act done or any right accrued or accruing under such provision of law before the effective date of section 11 or 12, or both, or any suit or proceeding had or commenced before the effective date of section 11 or 12, or both, but all such rights and liabilities under an Act To provide for a tax on motor-vehicle fuels sold within the District of Columbia, and for other purposes, approved April 23, 1924 (43 Stat. 105; D.C. Code, sec. 47-1901 et seq.), and section 128 of the District

(c) All offenses committed, and all penalties incurred, prior to the effective date of section 11 or 12, or both, under any provision of law repealed or amended, may be prosecuted and punished in the same manner and with the same effect as if section 11 or 12, or both, had not been enacted.

Sec. 15. This act shall take effect after a thirty (30) day period of Congressional review following approval by the Mayor (or in the event of veto by the Mayor, action by the Council of the District of Columbia to override the veto) as provided in section 602(c)(1) of the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 813; D.C.
