"(a)(1) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent, a District banking corporation or a director, officer, employee, agent, or other person who participates in the conduct of the affairs of the banking corporation, engages in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the business of the bank or violates or is about to violate a law, rule, regulation, written condition imposed by the Superintendent in connection with the grant of any application or request, or any written agreement entered into with the Superintendent, the Superintendent may institute an administrative action against the bank or person by the issuance of a Notice of Charges.

"(2) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent, a person or a director, officer, employee, agent, or other person who participates in the conduct of the affairs of the person violates or is about to violate a law, rule, regulation, written condition imposed by the Superintendent in connection with the grant of any application or request, or any written agreement entered into with the Superintendent, the Superintendent may institute an administrative action against the person by the issuance of a Notice of Charges.

"(b) The Notice of Charges shall set forth the basis for the administrative action and shall set a time and place for a hearing to determine whether a cease and desist order shall issue based on the Notice of Charges. The hearing shall be held within 60 days after the service of the Notice of Charges unless another date is set by the hearing officer at the request of 1 of the parties.

"(c) In the event of a consent or default or if, upon the record at the hearing, the Superintendent finds that any violation or practice alleged in the Notice of Charges is established by a preponderance of the evidence, the Superintendent may issue an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The affirmative action may include indemnification, reimbursement, restitution, or any other relief that the Superintendent deems appropriate.

"(d) The cease and desist order shall become effective 30 days after service or, in the case of consent, shall become effective immediately. The order shall remain effective and enforceable unless the order is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by the Superintendent or a reviewing court.

"(e) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent, a violation or practice or threatened violation or practice of this act or the Banking Business Act is likely to cause insolvency, substantial dissipation of the assets or earnings of the bank or person, or serious prejudice to the interests of the depositors or customers of the bank or person, the Superintendent, through the Office of the Corporation Counsel, may:

"(1) Petition the court to issue a restraining order to prevent the continuance of the violation or practice or threatened violation or practice, pending completion of the Superintendent's administrative proceeding;

"(3) Petition the court to freeze or seize the assets of the bank or person consistent with applicable law; or
